Literacy Project Update

Wetaskiwin Regional Public Schools Literacy Project has been implemented in Parkdale, Ecole Queen Elizabeth, Centennial and Norwood schools. The Literacy Project is a focused whole school approach to literacy, designed to improve the literacy success of students. The Literacy Project ensures a common understanding of the best teaching strategies that result in improved student literacy. Staff use the job embedded professional development days to understand student strengths and areas of improvement. They enhance their literacy instructional strategies and support each other's common understanding and instructional analysis.

2020-2023 Three Year Capital Plan

That the Board of Trustees approved the 2020-2023 Three Year Capital Plan that retains a new Winfield School as priority one and a new Parkdale School as priority two.

2019-2020 School Year Calendar

The Board approved the 2019-2020 school year calendars. The calendar feedback received from the consultation conducted with parents, school councils, staff and community partners were considered when developing the calendars for the upcoming school year. The Board heard strong support from staff and parent to continue the job embedded professional development days that are a critical part of Response to Intervention.

The 2019-2020 School Year Calendars have been approved.
